2011 ArtsUnited's Ribbons for the Children

ArtsUnited is accepting donations for the Sixth Annual Ribbons for the Children program. The program is a benefit for the Children's Diagnostic & Treatment Center (CDTC) in Fort Lauderdale in recognition of World AIDS Day. The CDTC treats pediatric AIDS patients as well as many other illnesses effecting children.

Artists are invited to produce an original visual art piece that reflects their creative interpretation of the AIDS Ribbon. All art work must include a red ribbon.

Deadline: The art will be collected by ArtsUnited at drop off on October 1st, 2010 and then will be donated to the CDTC.

The CDTC will select some of the entries to be reproduced to make note cards, prints, etc. to be sold throughout the year. All art work will be displayed at a reception at (A location to be determined.) where they will be auctioned to benefit the CDTC. The reception is scheduled for Friday, December 2, 2011 6-9pm (Location to be determined.) Each artist that submits work will be provided two complimentary tickets to attend the reception.

We ask that all submissions be of appropriate size to be displayed on a floor easel. Minimum 20" x 20" and largest 48" x 48"- no larger than 48", Completed Applications are to be submitted with the art work on Saturday, October 1st between 11am and 1pm at the Stonewall Library Museum Archives, 1300 East Sunrise Blvd. in Fort Lauderdale, FL 33304.

For information, contact Peter Meyerhoefer at artsunitednews@gmail.com or 305-281-0556

There is no fee to enter. Only one piece per artist will be considered. Only the AIDS Ribbon theme will be accepted. All work submitted must be identified on the back with artist's name and title of the work, and be finished, framed, and ready to display. No Sawtooth Hangers.
